" Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

-53,473 GAIN PER DAY-

THE WORLD'S gain in July circulation over July, 1894, was greater than the total circulation of any one of nine New York S S S S

HE WORLD'S July circulation was 554,178 per day. *

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WINNERS AT SARATOGA.

With Liza Drawn, Arapahoe Captures the Hurricana Stud Stakes.

TALENT DEFEAT THE BOOKS,

FIRST RACE-Preston First. Hidago Second. BECOND RACE-Florence Colville First. Mildred D. Second. THIRD RACE-Arapahoe First. Dolahra Second. FOURTH RACE-Kamsin First. Sky Blue Second. FIFTH RACE-Candelabra First. Caraceas Second.

(special to The Evening World.) The track was si w here to-day, and fast time was out of the question. It was expected that in the Hurrican-Stud Stakes Caesarion, Lizz and Arapa hoe would run one of the fastest miles of the meeting.

The weather was cool and clear, anthe attendance large. Ten carloads of horses, including the Blemton and Gid eon lot, leave here to-night for Sheeps head Bay. From to-day on horses will be shipped to the seaside course, except those engaged in stakes.

There was a delay at the post in the first race owing to the running away of Dr. Morrice. a heavily backed second choice, owned by ex-Mayor Nolan, one of the stewards. Griffin was thrown, but not injured.

Stoward F. T. Morehead, who has been betting on the races ever since the meeting began, to-day resigned his position. It was insinuated that Mr. Morchead's decisions were influenced by his bets. Julge Powers agreed to act as third steward until the close of the meeting.

FOURTH RACE.

For two-year-olds; selling, five furiongs.
Starters.

Xamsin, 109 (E. Cochram) - 7.10 and 1 12, 13, 13, 140 and 1 12, 14, 140 and 1 12, 140 and 1 12,

For other sporting news see Wernberg 111 Ed Kernby 100

FIRE IN A UNIVERSITY.

fire department responded to an alarm at Johns-Hopkins University. It is said that the laboratory is on fire.

Burner's Flavoring Extracts took the gold medal at the Midwinter Fair. **

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Leacars W. Volk, the noted semiptor. Cled schooly at his Summer is the still wis pesturiar. He was sixty medal at the Midwinter Fair. **

THE WINNERS AT AQUEDUCT. REPORTING

PIRST RACE-Larisan First. Santurza Second. SECOND RACE-Souvenir First. Roundelay Second.

Aurelian Pirst. Kinglet Second. FOURTH RACE-Emotional First. Crimen Second.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, AQUEDUCT, Aug. 19. A good-sized crowd for Monday atended the races of the Queen's County lockey Club this afternoon. The weather and track were superb for racing pur poses, and at the opening of the sport but three scratches were bulletined, Jackey Willie Sines, none the worse for his Coney Island episode, was on hand. Jeckey J. Horton was called to the judges' stand after the first race and questioned about his riding on Unity. He did not give the judges a satisfacory explanation and was suspended indefinitely and his case referred to the Jockey Club. He was permitted to fulfil his engagement in the second cace, however. FIRST RACE. FIRST RACE.

For two-pear-olds, selling: five furious.

Starters.

Starters. the selection of a defender of the America's Cup, to be sailed to-morton the America's Cup, to be sailed to-morton to a fair start. Miss Lynah kept the rail to the quarter, with Larissa and Mary Nance close up and the others that displayed in the coming cup races to front to the half, where Larissa cought her and piloted the field home, as in front to the half, where Larissa cought her and piloted the field home, withing in a drive by a neck from Jan 1922a, who was two lengths before Mary Nance. Time 1933-4.

Mr. Steckler objected to hearsay evidence.

The Line the Coroner as the two prisoners.

Mr. Winters when called as a witness subsed and broke down.

The Coroner asked him if his wife had taken any medicine. The witness said she told him she had.

Mr. Steckler objected to hearsay evidence. SECOND BACE.

Par three-year note non-winners this year; willing the and a hell farthers. Statistics Horning St. His Pin. They finally got away to a fair start, with Vent in the lead, followed by Souventr and Roundelay, Bowling Green soon went to the front, Souven'r keeping his position and Roundelay at his saddle girths. Coming into the streets a drive by a neck from Roundelay, who was a length and a half before Bowling Green. Time—1.03.

For three year-oils and marging and mile.

Ship shape, every said in place, under its covering canvas, and every part of the work of his own knowled by the standing and running gear in absolutely perfect order.

On deck was every evidence of preparation for a great race. The trim yacht had been stripped for to-morrow's encounter, and only her anchor cable remained of all her cruising gear. In fact, everything suggested a readiness die the minds of the jury of the current of the coroner and the coroner and only her anchor cable remained of all her cruising gear. In fact, everything suggested a readiness

For three-year-obia and upward; one mile. Starters. Betting St. HM. Fin. Aurelian. 115 (Smet). 8-5 25 2 4 15 Kinglet. 117 (Smet). 8-5 25 2 4 15 Kinglet. 117 (Smet). 8-1 15-1 1 2 12 2 3 and Up. 104 (Off-ser). 1-7 25 4 2 5 Kinglet. 104 (Wyone). 20-1 10-1 5 5 Kinglet took the lead to a good start. Aurelian. Annie Bishop and Sun Up followed closely in the order named. Annie Bishop and Sun Up were in front when the half was reached. Sims keeping Aurelian well in hand. Enterin, the stretch Aurelian was sent along and won by a head from Kinglet, who was I length in front of Sun Up. Time=1.45. FOURTH RACE Starters Beauty St. Hif. Fin. Brailers St. Hif. Fin. Brailers St. Cicles 7-19 and 2 15 14 fr. mas. 25 (Filesers 7-5 cut 1 25 25 Fred Train 25 (F. Finnepanish-1 4:1 35 35 Fred Train 25 (F. Finnepanish-1 4:1 35 35 Fred Crimes lumined to the front at fing-fall, followed by Lincotional. The latter spott fick command and held it to the end, withing handlip by haif a length from Crimes. Fred Train was a poor third. Time-1-081-5.

Arapalos vent out in front an was been badded, winding entity bear headed, winding entity bear headed, winding entity bear headed, winding entity bear headed with the transmission of the bear with the same distance. The latter can under a pull for six furlougs, but died away when called upon. Time-142 bear with bear to be bear bear and bear of the bear

Stilling, mile and a quarter strong St. Nic. Vin SARATOGA ENTRIES.

Saratoga entries and virtual transfer of the big control of SARATOGA ENTRIES. Cass made the running. Dungarven was second to the far turn, where he pends to the far turn, was to the far turn, the pends to the far turn, where he pends to far the far turn, where he pends to the far turn, where he pends to far turn, Third Reco-Hendicap; one mile sir Excess 115 Lake Shore Wernland 112 Paper Ed Kenricky

Surra Race-Stiling five furlough

Pris 12 Kapsings coit,

In law as 12 Inguinar

St nemnach 112 Haus Murcheter

Marry Monarch 112 Habe Murphy. Buildimore Engines Hurry to Johns Hopkins.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—At 3.39 the Marchs. 12 habe Murphy. 103

Pith Race-tkolons Hurlis Stakes, two miles by a swarm of barbor boats and small Woodford 144 Sautherner. 146

Kingsby 148 St. Luke. 140

Chevy Chase 140 Island ferry-boats and the Saudy Hook Death of Sculptor Volk.

THIRD RACE-

Experiment to Be Repeated in the Trial Races.

Cas-Generating Plant Established at Highland Beach and a Telegraph Cable Laid.

TO MAKE THE CAR STATIONARY.

duy Ropes Will Maintain a Stationary Observatory 1,500 Feet in Air-Both Boats Ready.

Interest in the trial races for document or not." the selection of a defender of the row morning, is hardly secondary to Mr. Winters when called as a witness

Early yesterday afternoon Vigilant Early yesterday afternoon Vigilant got up sail and made a quick run from Bay Ridge to the Horseshoe inside Sandy Rook, her faithful tender Acronaut following her as rapidly as her steam would permit.

Con. that's all right, each the saw Dekota was ferced against the Smith the bottles. The Coroner is not bound to listen to any objections. The Court of speaks has decided that I needn't when the storm struck the Keefer allow anything of the kind, nor any larger the cook, and two colored chambers. her steam would permit.

ship shape, every sail in place, under

On deck was every evidence of preparation for a great race. The trim yacht had been stripped for to-morrow's encounter, and only her anchor cable remained of all her cruising gear. In fact, everything suggested a rendiness of silp moerings and start in the finest race of her career at five minutes' notice.

As in previous races 'The Evening World' has neglected no preparations for furnishing the public with the details of the trials while they are progressing. The facilities afforded by special tugs, carrier-pigeons, special wires.

Then, turning to the witness, the Coracra care said, severely.

You knew your wife was going to do this thing.

"I am his counsel, and I object to such a question Y in have no right to prejudic the minds of the jury."

I'm the Coroner and the counsel, the counsel, the proposition of the minds of the ruling of the coroner, said Mr. Steckler, 'we can do nothing."

Mr. Steckler said down diguisted.

Mrs. Dowlshak, mother of the dead woman, sail she saw Ir. Kraft and Wirs. Thomas, the midwife, give her suggister medicine.

Dr. Victoria, who was called in whe started to testify the started to testify the started to testify the started to testify.

The steamer Courier, with 400 passengers on board, was swept with water, and the passengers became panicative, but Capt. Klein succeeded in making a landing at Painter's Mills, and sil were discharged from the boat in safety.

While he steamer Courier, with 400 passengers on board, was swept with water, and the passengers became panicative, the passengers became panicative, and the passengers beca

&c., will again be supplemented, as in the recent races, by a captive balloon, from which an expert, who is a sailor, newspaper man and telegraph repostes. from which an expert, who is a sailor.

Coroner Hoeber sustained him ewspaper man and telegraph reporter.

If you sustain that objection I will will describe the race as seen from his withdraw from the case, said Mt.

will ascend.

During the experiments in balloon reporting the airship will be moored and its cable paid out through a trail-block. as was done on recent occasions, but in order to prevent the awaying and make so far as possible, a fixed observatory of the car at a height of 1,500 feet three or four guy ropes will be fastered to its sides and stretched at angles which will be made necessary by the direction and force of the wind a stretched to the made necessary by the direction and force of the wind of the international

VALKYRIE III. IN HARBOR.

Crowds View the English Yacht at Her Anchorage in the Upper Bay. By far the most interesting object on view in the bay this morning was nord Dunraven's crack single-sticker, Vaiby kyric III. which arrived here last evening after a voyage of 22 days and 5 hours from Gourock, Stotland.

The challenger for the America's Cup lay at anchor just east of the Statue Liberty in full view of promenalers at the Battery, where crowds of people gathered at an early hour this morning to get their first glimpse of the big English yacht which is soon to try conclusions with Defender. She was surrounted at her anchorage they came up to town this morning.

As they passed by the big white Slack to have a warrant issued in yacht, scarcely a hundred feet distant, (Continued on Tatrd Page.)

Magistrate Kudlich committee instant without ball, and notified Trainman Slack to have a warrant issued in yeart, scarcely a hundred feet distant, over to kallway betoeffve Suffiyan, who will take him to Peckskill for trial. steamers had an unexpected treat when

HOEBER AT IT AGAIN. DEATH IN THE STORM. WARRANT OUT

NEW YORK, MONDAY, AUGUST 19, 1895.

BY BALLCON The Funny Little Man Dec'ares Three Liver Lost and Scores of He Is Coroner and Counsel.

Legal Objections, Ha Says.

to terve on the Jury.

Coroner Hoeber made an inquiry this Winters, of 1275 First avenue, it is alleged, as the result of criminal mal-

Mrs. Augusta Thomas, a midwife, and Dr. Kraft, the pris ners, were in at-Louis J. Steckler tendance. Lawyer appeared for the defendants. Corener's Physician Huber, who performed the autopsy, said the woman's death was caused by blood-poisoning resulting from maipractice or possibly from a tall. The Coroner started to read the ante-mortem statement, to which objection was made. "I allow the objection to be stated by the stenographer. I overrule it and I'm going to read it," interrupted Coroner Hoeber, "no matter whether it is a legal o'clock and was over in half an hour.

Then the Coroner read the statement,

"Ch, that's all right," said the Core Aloft, her rigging was tautened and cross-examination either."

hir Stocker asked the witness if he its covering canvas, and every part of knew of his own knowledge that his The Coroner ruled the question out, Then, turning to the witness, the Corwin describe the rate of the r

CHESS AT HASTINGS.

the eleventh round of the International Chess Masters' Tournament was played In short, everything that expense, mergy and an earnest desire to make the havel plan of reporting a success only accomplish has been done. The results will be apparent in "The Evenage World's" reports of the races. at Brassey's Institute. The results up Lasker beat Gunsberg in a Fiench detense after thirty moves. Tindley best Vergant in a queen's gambit de-clined after forty-three moves. Misson out find in a French defense after hity-six moves. Tschigoria heat area in a French defer-e after thirty w naved. Albin beat Misses in a Ruy

"The Evening World's" Novel Not Found by Law to Listen to One Woman Was Blown Into the The Owner of the West Broad-River from a High Bridge.

> He Forces Board of Health Doctors Another Woman and Three Children Rescued from a Wreck.

People Injured at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19 - Lost night's morning into the death of Mrs. Annie storm was the most terrific and destruc-Wingers, of 1275 First avenue, it is alyears. It came without warning and at a time when the parks were filled with people and the rivers with boats crowdel with excursionets.

As far as known at this time, three lives were lest, a score of persons were injured-two it is thought fatally-and property damaged to the extent of $100,-

The dead are: Millie Linbaugh, cook on the steamer Lud Keefer, drowned. Archibaid Sepbie, employed on a coal barge. Unknown woman, blown from the Point Bridge. The storm struck the city about b tain came down in terrents, accompanied by vivid lightening and terrific wind. Houses were unroofed, trees uprooted and fences and outhouses demol-

So tremendous was the force of the Little Bill and Arlington were over urned, and many barger, coal boats and cuall craft torn from their moorings nd sent adrift. The passenger barge augh, the cook, and two colored chamermalds were on board, but all reached be shore in safety xcept Millie Linsugh, who became exhausted and was trowned.

The steamer Courier, with 400 passen west end. He was married and had large family. The day had been extremely hot, and thousands of people were at Schenley Fark. When the storm came on there was a rush for shelter. Several women were severely shocked by coming in contact with alectric-light wires. On the south side the large grain elevator of Henderson & Johnson, in course from the contact with side the large grain elevator of Henderson & Johnson, in course from the contact with the south side the large grain elevator of Henderson & Johnson, in course from the contact which we have the south side of the south

Some state of the storm came o nen. Before the proceedings began a start-

A Little Tot Asleep on a Greenwood Fitzpatrick issued a warrant for the ar-

A pretty girl of seven years was said officers were in search of him. cars on his twen. From Jerse: City. go anywhere out of the county, but in he said, he took the child to his home the State for Ireland. in Orange, N. J., lest night

She told the conductor her father

The first witness called was Louis screets. He took her there, but could be be be better the streets. He took her there, but could be worked for the Macons' Supstreets. He took her there, but could find no one who I was her. He then took her to the Grammar school, on King street, but as no one knew her there he conveyed her to Meadquarters. She had been there a short time when a weaman inquired for a loss child. The girl was debtilled as her houghter. The warman neith that she was airs Sarah therefore, of 27 West street, and the girl was named Jennie. She had no lides how the child got on the train.

The child serie a comme gave her cannot gar and asked nor to take a ride on the case.

The pathes believe the child is not of seened mind and wandered into the train. Her mother look her home.

JUSTICE STRONG DEAD.

Expires at 2.10 O'Clock To-Day at Lak Minnewaska.

FOR IRELAND.

way Slaughter-House to Be Arrested.

OFFICERS ARE AFTER HIM.

Garry Testifies at the Inquest that He Was Stopped from

Building Inspector Buckley Incriminated by the Startling quest into the deaths of the fifteen men whose lives were crushed out in the fall Weight May Have Been Unequal. of the Ireland building, West Third to bring these estimates here. I propose that he read them."

The witness read on and finally came to the bid of John H. Parker to put up the entire building. The amount was put down at $65,48. He finally reduced it to $60,000 and got the contract.

"Who was the Building inspector?" Mr. Harens was asked.

"Mr. Harens was asked.

"Did you ever see him in the building."

"Yes. I saw him there several times,"
"Was he there when the excavations ere being made?"

of the concrete bed under the central pillar or anythine else.

"Have yet formed any opinion at all as to the cause of the collapse?" asked Mr. McIntyre.

"No, sir, I have not."

"And you meat, to say that you, the architect of the building, went there after the collapse, made an investigation and arrived at no conclusion?"

"I have no idea. I have read all the theories advanced by others, but have none of my own."

of the Ireland building. West Third "Well, tell us what you think" street and West Broadway, twelve days "Well. I thought it might have been ago, opened at 10.30 o'clock this morning before Coroner Fitzpatrick and a jury in Part III, of the Court of General were ling rumor was current that John B. Ireland, the owner of the building, FOUND HER LOST CHILD. Following rapidly on the heels of this report came the statement that Coroner Sessions.

The Coroner confirmed the report and taken to Police Headquarters to-day. The Coroner soil he ossied the war-by Conductor David Day, of the Greenwood Lake Railroad. He said that he Mercer street station, this morning-found the child askeep in one of the The warrant gives the officer power to Expires at 2.10 O'Clo & To-Day at Architect Behrens Recalled.

FLAGGED THE FAST MAIL.

It was only in Pun, but May Prove Very Serious.

John Laseko, the Hungarian, who yesterday flagged the Chicago fast mail train between Peekskill and Duteness Junction, was in Yorkville Police Courtional Mail and potential field flow and Frederick T, Siack, the trainmant.

Trainman Slack told Magistrate Kudlich the delay of a minute, if other trains on the road were running on close schedule time, might cause scrious trouble.

Margistrate Kudlich committed Laseko without ball, and notified Trainman Slack to have a warrant lessed in Duteness County, Laseko will be turned over the Kudlich committed Laseko with take in Trainman Slack to have a warrant lessed in Duteness chedule time, might cause scrious trouble.

Margistrate Kudlich committed Laseko without ball, and notified Trainman Slack to have a warrant lessed in Duteness County, Laseko will be turned over the Kudlich committed Laseko with the meaning shour as all about.

Weather Forecast.

Take Minnewaska, N. Y. Ang A. A. Jake N. Jake N. Jake A. Architect fiehrens was then recalled to the witness study. He was asked about the number of contra of the war who from the list, together with the amounts of contra of the said there were over two death, and the last list list accounts as all about.

Father Ducey Weet's nn Atheist.

Father Ducey Recisa nn Atheist. Architect Behrens was then recalled

"Yes."
"Did he ever tell you about discover-ing a ritern in the ground."
"No, he did not."
Inspector Was Interested. "Did he ever tell you that the specifications had not been complied with, that only tweive instead of eighteen inches of concrete had been used?
"No, he did not. He told me the work was well done. He was interested in the firm of E. T. Donnelly & Co., who had put in a bid of $32,100 for all the mason work."
"Pid he tell you he was interested in that firm?
"Yes. He told me so himself. He had also tried to get the bid."
One of the jurous asked in amazement: Digging Deaply.

Digging Deaply.

Do you mean to say he was building inspector at the time he tried to get the contract for Donnelly & Co."

I do." was the cool answer.

As the work progressed the witness said Buckley talked to him about it, but had never said anything about the trenches, the cerspool, the thickness of the concrete bed under the central pillar or anything else. Against Grooms with

CHANCE FOR A DOUBLE PLAY.

JOSEPH GARRY, WHO PREPARED THE FOUNDATION.

On the Grounds, but Not in Uni form or On the Players' Bench -3,500 Speciators.

(Special to The Evening World.) een heaped upon t em during the past three months by Foutz, Griffin & Co. They came some fourteen strong (or weak), and really believed they were recently began to doubt.

can tell. It is to be hoped, however, that they have at least shaken off that tired feeling. Even the fact that "Roaring Bill" Kennedy, he of the proud Fitzsimmons-like airs and terrific speed, was down to pitch for the Clayeaters, did not seem to worry the Harlemites before the game, Since Saturday evening they have evidently laid in a new stock of Heretofore the "Joynts" have laid down o William without a murmur. This afternoon was the last time the wo teams will meet this season. In the eleven contests that have taken place thus far, the gang from the lesser ortion of the Greaten New York, have walked away fith victory perched upon could be sprinkled at alight expense. Captain-Manager Toyle was again conspicuous by his absence from the leam. He was present upon the neither did he occupy the players' bench before the game began,

New York.
Fuller, ss.
Fuller, ss.
Griffin, cf.
Yan Haltren, cf.
Corcoran, st Van Haltren, cf. Corcoran, ss. Anderson, if. Wilson or Doyle, 1b. Daily, 2b. Tredway, rf. Stafford, 2b. La Chance, 1b. Farr il. c. Kennedy, p. Lmpire-Mr. Keefe.

First Inning.

Corcoran to La Chance was "Giant" Fuller's end. Tiernan got the same deal. Van had his waiting clothes on, and his patience was rewarded with a free ticket to La Chance's corner Davis hoisted a high one, which Daly gathered. No runs. Chapiain Griffin fathomed "Meck's" specus ones for a single into Van's territory. "Shorty" Fuller made a mess of shin the s easy bounder, and both Brooklynites were safe where a double play ran eleverly sacrifleed. Anderson then tapped a little one to Meekin and Griffin started home. "Meck" started to catch Griffin, but Davis left third base uncovered and the bases all held occupants, Griffin getting back to third safely, Meek refused to allow Daly to connect. Tred-way tapped a little bounder to Divis and was thrown out. No runs.

Wilson's pop flied to Cally. "Good-eye" Tommay Burns swatted the leather along the Left field foul line for two lags and keut on its third on Anderson's while throw. Griffin made a great catch of Stafford's terriffic low liner, and by a corking throw nailed Burns at the plate. No runs.

YORK-BROOKLYN GAME AND THE an unequal distribution of weight. A faulty construction of the foundations AQUEDUCT RACES WILL BE GIVEN

ARCHITECT BEHRENS.

przence pretty well concealed. The Batting Order.

Second Inning.

New York...... 0 0

FULL DETAILS OF THE NEW

IN THE NIGHT ETXRA. (Continued on Third Page.)

IN HIS FUMBLE. 'Joynts" Start the Last Game

Poor Play.

It Wasn't Accepted, Though and Davis Neglected to Cover Third, Saving Griffin.

DOYLE TAKES ANOTHER DAY

HASTERN PARK, Aug. 19.-Gotham's ellection of hopefuls again crossed the ig bridge this afternoon, bent upon revenge for all the humiliation that has players, which New York cranks have Whether this outward show of renewed confidence is but temporary, time alone nerve food, for upon all preceding form "Roaring Bill" should have a walkover.

their shoulders, no less than eight times: the New Fork management put in their star manipulator of the leather, Meekin. But for a disagreeable wind that blew across the diamond, entrying clouds of just into the faces of the spectators and players, the weather was delightful. Alh ugh this most disagre-able nuisance had been called to the attention of the Brooklyn management, no effort has en exerted to remedy it. The grounds

There were but few New York rooters single the 3,500 persons present. At least, im there were they kept their